

CLUBHOUSE BULLETIN BOARD POLICY

1. Articles for Sale by Residents of Briar Creek: May be posted at any time on the Items For Sale bulletin board (currently by the northeast exit door). Must contain the name of the resident and the date posted. Such notices expire after two months unless renewed. Notices of items for sale by non-residents may not be posted without prior approval by the Board of Directors.
2. Services or Products by Residents of Briar Creek: May be posted at any time on the Community Bulletin Board (currently by the library room doorway). Must contain the name of the resident and the date posted. Such notices expire after twelve months unless renewed.
3. Services or Products by Non-Residents, and Other Notices: May be posted on the Community Bulletin Board only with prior approval by any Officer, the Clubhouse Chairperson or a person designated by the Clubhouse Chairperson. Must contain the date posted and the signed initials of the person granting approval. Such notices expire after two months unless renewed.

The Clubhouse Chairperson or a person designated by the Clubhouse Chairperson may remove any such notices from the bulletin boards at his/her discretion based on relevancy, expiration, appropriateness, appearance or non-compliance with the above conditions.

The Webmaster may post or remove any such notices on the website at his/her discretion.
